To Sacred Harp Singers and Friends:

A new year is here, new minutes are out for your use for 1994. The address of some new singers have been add, the deceased deleted. I know some addresses are incorrect, but you failed to send the new ones to me. If you have a change of address please sent it to me by August 1.

I cannot print poems that are used in the memorial lesson because of copyright . Please write your own memorial lesson so it can be printed.

We had five singing discounted this year, which makes a total of 76 singing discountinued in the last ten years.

Lets encourage other people young and older to learn the Sacred Harp Music. We have lost so many of our older singers, we are seeing our classes become very small in most areas now. In order for the Sacred Harp singing to grow we must have more people learn to singing this music.

Some of our singers now seen to thank it is a place to go for fun, are see who can singing the fastest. This should not be the case, our forfather went and our older singers go now to sing praises to our Lord. Look at the Bible reference under the names of the song, see where the words of the song are from. These older writer of Sacred Harp Music wrote the songs of praise to be sung in reverence to our Lord. Lets carry the singing own as our forfather did. If we singing so fast our vistors do not understand the words or notes. I have had several people making this statement " We can't unders stand what is being sung".

We still have some secretary who do not send the minutes in on time. Please get your minutes to me on time so they may be in order. All 1993 December singing will be printed in front of 1994 minute. This must be done if you receive your minutes in February. Continue to send $25.00 per day and $12.50 for night singing. Make your checks to Sacred Harp Singings.

Hope each of you have a good year in 1994.

Nora Parker, Secretary

FOUR - NOTE SINGING

Marion, Kentucky

January 23, 1993

The annual Four Note Singing was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by William Paris. He introduced Judge Jon May who welcomed singers to Marion. Mr. Paris announced that both morning and afternoon session would consist of about one hour's singing from each of two books, The Southern Harmony and The Sacred Harp. Tim Reynolds distributed a list of 150 songs that are in both books. The chairman called the first hour of singing to order by demonstrating the pendulum for keeping time, as explained in the introduction to The Southern Harmony. Knots in the string cause the pendulum to sway at different speeds, setting the time for 2/4, 4/4, 6/8 and so on. Any disagreement about the tempo of a song could be settled by the pendulum.

Mr Paris led song on page 66, "Pleasant Hill" from the Southern Harmony, dedicating it to Pleasant Hill Church, which revised shape note singing in 1978 and still uses this music as a congregation. Next he led song on page 192b. The Memorial lesson was called by Ella Wilcox, who turned the floor over to Amanda Denson. Howard Brady read Psalm 103: 14-17 "For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust. As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth. For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more. But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children." Amanda Denson then made remarks summarized as follows: " When I was twelve years old, Uncle Pain Denson, Aunt Ruthy (Ruth Denson Edwards), Aunt Annie (Ann Denson Aaron) and I went to the Chattahoochee Convention in Georgia. The cream of the crop were there, and we had a glorious time, but when we got home I said, "Aunty Ruthy, it takes so long when we sing for those dead people." She replied, " Amanda, you will grow to love this part best, " and I have. It has become my favorite part of the singing. All of those people sang for others all their lives, and now we are singing for them, and some day our children will sing for all of us. The cycle goes on and on. We are only a link in a chain -- a golden chain. It makes me happy to sing today with members of the Godsey, Lacy, Creel, McGraw and Beasley families, my own family , and other families long associated with Sacred Harp. However, those who have gone on before us can outclass any voice in this room. It's not death--period, but death--comma.

" You do not make any thing the foundation of your life that can be taken away from you. The people we remember today knew that, and Sacred Harp was a large part of many of their lives. This is part of the reason for a Sacred Harp heart. If you have never heard that term before, it means goodness and kindness personified. It is what makes us like an extended family, and it is what makes us endure from generation to generation. Hans Christian Andersen said, " Every man's life is a fairy tale written by God's fingers. " We are all artists. We are each painting a picture-- a picture of life." In closing, Amanda Denson said, "It is Palm Sunday and for all friends, loved ones, and Sacred Harp singers of all time who already have the resurrected life, let's sing Easter Anthem." Then Hugh Mc Graw and Amanda Denson led 236. Pat Hilgard read the names of the sick and shut-ins: W. Smith (MD); Pansy McConnell (NM), John and Catherine DeNys (IL), George and Pat Lippi (WI), Mother and Father Rudolph (ND),

Marjory Banks, (NY), Jerry and Mozell Sheppard (AL), Lonnie and Vivian Rogers (GA), Laura Fargo (AL). Sarah Smith led 61 in their honor. The memorials were done by region: for the local Ares, John delRe led 566 in memory of Hille W. delRe, Wayne Welch, Dr. Rick Ready, Nargo Sylvester (All from VA). Dr. J. D. Broussard (MD). For the Northeast, Eric Bean led 47b in memory of Carol Love (NY), Richard Dill (CT), and Katherine Williamson. For the West and Midwest, Beth Hoffman led 87 in memory of Chris Chapin (CA), James Windon,Sr. (MI), Edwin Tarsa (IL), Cynthia Anderson (PA), and Irwin Schwager (PA). The locating Committee, Bob Hall and Steven Sabol, who announced interest in obtaining the same location for next year's convention. A date has not been determined, since Easter will fall on the usual weekend of the convention. Finance report: Steve Sabol thanked the singers for their generosity in Contributing $1876, which has enabled the convention to meet its expenses. Resolutions report was given by Kelly Macklin. We want to thank and honor all the people who have worked to put this convention together- the officers and committee members; Hugh McGraw for leading the Singing School and providing a constant source of expertise and moral support; Karen Foley, who did a beautiful job co-ordinating the pot luck meals with help from Molly Peterman and Geraldene Mayes, in charge of the kitchen; Kacy Woodard for hospitality arrangements; Leslie Kosrich for co-ordinating the registration desk; Ella Wilcox, wearing many hats, for co-ordinationg child care. We thank George Seiler for his inspired guidance as our Chaplain. Especial

thanks to Steve Sabol for his tireless activity on behalf of Sacred Harp Singing, locating Hearst Hall, publicity and finance, and for his gracious generosity and hospitality to singers from near and far at his home last night. We thank Reuben Musgrave for inviting singers to sing at the Cathedral this morning and share our music. We want to thank Bill Windom for recording the convention. Lastly, we wish to thank the Memorial Committee for one of the most eloquent and moving memorial lessons I've known. They pretty well expressed my deepest feelings about the power and joy Sacred Harp singing has on our lives. This the fourth Potomac River Convention. We are still in our infancy, but I can see us maturing, deepening and developing what Amanda has called a "Sacred Harp heart". We thank all the singers here and those afar who have nurtured us along the way. It is the countless acts of kindness, individual generosity and welcoming love that have contributed to a near perfect world these two and a half days. Dee Peterman's daughter Molly was given special recognition and flowers in thanks for all her work. Leaders: Jerry Enright, 101; Jim Brady, 155; Jean Seiler, 299; Ginnie Ely, 228; Ron Davies, "Refreshment" (New tune by Mimi Stevens); Leyland delRe, 276; Judy Mincey, 117. At this point in our day, we pause to remember our loved ones, singers and non-singers, that have passed from our circle. So many families that were raised in this community have members of the families here today. Marcia Johnson spoke of the deceased and of the many sick and shut-ins. She also told of many nights, when unable to sleep, she would think of so many different things that are happening in the U.S. and other countries. However, regardless of our many cares and trouble, she remembered Leonard Lacy's words, "When we all sing, all of our cares and troubles just seem to fade away and we can just forget them for awhile". How lucky we are that we can all do what we all love to do, and our troubles just kindly pass away and we are at such perfect peace. She spoke of the words in the song by Judy Hauff that says, Where is the man that draws his breath, safe from disease and secure from death" and of the words of Ted Mercer song that says" Who brings salvation on their longues and words of peace reveal". Shelbie Sheppard led song on page 290. The memorial was closed with prayer by Rev. Clarence Cales. It was voted to do some work on the church. A collection was taken to help with repairs, since it was voted to keep the singing here instead of moving it some where else. Leaders: B. M. Smith, 183; Pam Nunn, 147 Felton Denney, 120; Evelyn Harris, 40, Cecil Edwards, 317b; Rene Green, 77b; Leslie Cates, 209; Arthur Beckett, 300; Marshall Avery, 108b; Carlton Wood, 400.

The convention was then turned over to the Memorial Committee. Meg Parsons began with these thoughts: This is a very special singing, and this is a very special weekend. This is Memorial Day weekend, and I think it's appropriate that on this day we remember the members of our extended community- people who have died in the past year, or who are sick and not able to be with us. When we read their names, each of them holds a special meaning to each of us, because they are a part of our community. As we read their names, and as we sing the songs, we'd like to reflect on what those words mean- What the songs mean to us as a community. In addition, as we sing the songs, as we do all the time, I think, we remember people who are special to us, people who have been influential in our lives- grandparents, parents, brothers, sisters, spouses- who've gone on before us. On this Memorial Day weekend, we think it's also appropriate that we remember people whose names we don't know, people who have died in wars, men and women who've given us the freedom to be here today; also people from around the world who are now suffering in war and famine; People here in our community, who are alone, afraid, sick, hungry. For those of us who've either been born to the tradition of Sacred Harp, or who have found it recently in their lives, we are very fortunate. We are a community. If we are not together by location, as we are today, as we sing the songs at home we think of each other. We comfort each other by singing our songs, as we think of each other, and as we think of God. Helen Bryson then read the names of the deceased: Virginia, Hilda delRe; Michigan, James Windom Sr., Kirk Norton, Fred Buesser. Florida, Jane Rend. Alabama. Leonard Lacy, Zera Tolleson, Mrs. Odell Cleveland, J.W. Busby and G. Grant. Illinois, Robert Rokusek, Agnes Witt, Jeanine Kowalski, Samuel Freeman, Indiana, Susie Coning. Wisconsin, Pat Collier, Father Luke Radke. Pennsylvania, Lora Rill. Gerogia, Garfield Rainwater, Josie Bell Avery and Gary DeLong. Freeman Wooten, who was asked to lead for the deceased, spoke briefly before his lesson "It's an honor for me to be here. This is a sad time; a lot of these people, if you just think of it, there's a whole congregation of these people that she called that have passed away. I don't know a lot of them, mostley the ones from Alabama. Most all of you know Leonard Lacy; I've known him as long as I've known anybody. He will be missed; He was a very useful man. At my father and mother's funeral, when they passed away, he was the leader of the singing, and I thought it was the prettest singing that I ever heard. Anyway, we miss them all." He then led song 101 and 566. Ginnie Ely then led 340 for the sick and shut-ins as follows: Sarah Curry; Cleo Hawkins and Parks McNeal. Sarah Barrie, Peggy Dillard, Virgil and Ruby Phillips, Noah and Margie Lacy and Runie Glover, Dollie Hudgins, Eva Reeves, Randall Hamilton, Dora Brake, Pauline Spain. The memorial lesson was concluded with prayer by John Bayer.

With time for one leader before dinner, Buell Cobb (AL) was called, who prefaced his lesson on page 349, with the following: "I'd like to preach instead of sing. I know that one of the many appeals of Sacred Harp Singing is that we spend more of our time singing than preaching, but I do want to just say this one thing, and that is that for those of us from the traditional areas that have been singing Sacred Harp before, the Chicago Community seems like the gateway to the undiscovered territory. This is not only the largest and the most vigorous of all the communities that have taken up Sacred Harp recently, but it has also done a wonderful job in shepherding other and smaller groups, and so for that, for the old singers and the new singers everywhere, I salute you and thank you for that." The chairman called for a special order of business and the class then sang Happy Birthday to Charlie Ballard, Kathleen Kuiper, Gary Gornau and Master Thomas Jefferson Willard.

DISMISSED FOR LUNCH.

Jerry Enright called the afternoon session to order leading song on page 312b. Leaders: Jenny Willard, (MN), 480; Dean Slaton, 532; Meg Parsons, (MN), 209; Brian Sears, (VA), 38b; Nancy Hejna (MI), 29; Ted Johnson, led "Boulder"; Joy Urban, 149; Paul, Marty, Melaine and Steve Herbert, Connie Karduck and Ann Tarsa, 203; Leslie Scott (OH), 71; Marcia Johnson, 176; Michael Darby (OH), 67; Cora Sweatt, (TN), 72b; Eloise Clark,(OH), 56b; Bobbie Goodell, (OH), 133; Dave Ressler (MO), 547;Jody Liss, 49b; Michele Biery 373; Stephen McMaster, 454; Sarah Smith, 129. Resolutions : " We thank God for another oportunity to meet with all of our friends, both old and new, and to enjoy each other and the singing. We thank the location Committee for the excellent rooms and the University of Chicago Folklore Society for their continued support. We appreciate those who fed us, especially Janice Collins, also Known as the Goddess of the Kitchen, and Marcia Johnson, her "Assistant Tyrant." Many thanks go to Judy Hauff who coordinated housing for the visiting singers. Also doing a good job was our resident "Blabbermoutn", Lisa Grayson who was responsible for the great publicity we received. Much appreciation goes to Ted Mercer " The Slavedriver", who whipped everyone into shape as usual. Thanks to Petrina Patti and St. Paul's Church for providing a meeting place for the social, therby allowing Marcia and Ted to keep their home in one piece. and for "Mother" Ruth for gettig all of her little ducks in a row and herding the cattle to the trough. As your Resolutions Committee, we submit the following: 1 Buell Cobb should be allowed to preach at all future meetings. we like his style. 2. Richard DeLong must provide step ladders to enable everyone to climb to new heights. 3. We the committee. Matt Lind, Carolyn Deacy, Judy Mincey and Pam Nunn do hereby resolve never to be on the Resolutions Committee again. Ever! Respectfully submitted by the aforementioned Committee. The chairman then added that special recognition and appreciation be directed to three more people , whose efforts and achievements on behalf of the Convention every year constitute much more than their share, and there followed long and loud applause for Marcia Johnson, Melanie Hauff and Kathleen Kuiper. After announcementa the officers led song on page 62 and those who wished took the parting hand. The conventionwas dismissed with prayer by John Bayer.

In observance of the 4th of July, Lonnie Rogers spoke of this privilege that we have in the United States to-gether this day and sing these songs that we all know and love so well. A lot of blood was shed by our service men in order for us to be here to day. We have a lot to be proud of and there's a lot wrong in our county, but when we have people who meet together and sing His praises, we are doing something right. We have so many opportunities living in these United States and if he could have his choice of where to go, or what to do, He would rather be here to day than any place. In his closing remarks concerning the Fourth of July and the flag, he asked everyone to stand and pledge allegiance to the flag. He closed his remarks by asking everyone in the church to sing "Amazing Grace", page 45. Regular singing resumed with the following leaders: Joanna Fabke, 350; Lewis Norton, 231; Mildred Patterson, 72b; Freeman Wootten, 388; Eula Johnson, 298; Shelton Williamson, 299; Eloise Avery, 560; Richard DeLong, 338; Beulah Reese, Richard Whatley expressed thanks to the Wilson Family and all others who made the convention a success. Our resolution is one of thanksgiving and praise. Thanks to a loving and gracious God who has sustained us, that we might gather together in this holy place for one more meeting. Praise because our meager songs fall far short of the true glory to which He is entitled.

We especially wish to thank the Wilson family, without whose help and generosity this convention could not have been held. Words can not express the gratitude of everyone gathered here for their tireless efforts on behalf of this convention. We would also like to recognize and thank the members of the various organizing committees for their hard work, the ones who prepared and brought the meals, and all the ones who came to lift their voices in praise. May the Lord bless and keep you all till we meet again.

This report is respectfully submitted by the Resolutions Committee, Charlene Wallace, Jeff Sheppard and Richard Whatley. The Finance Committee expressed thanks for the collection. The convention closed in the traditional way with officers leading song on page 62 and prayer by the Chaplain, Lonnie Rogers.

Prayer "O mighty cloud of witnesses, open our eyes to behold, our ears to hear, our minds to receive. Amen. As we remember, let us be aware that these have passed into that life that is life indeed. Their lives serve as memorials to them. Now a cloud of witnesses as a royal and very real presence, encompassing us in such a way as to afford real peace and comfort in times of distress and despair. Entering into our deepest joys, and enriching each worship experience-lending to each a new dimension. It has been my experience that, in times of need, my loved ones are closer in the spiritual realm than they were in the physical- Of the righteous dead the Bible speaks: their works do follow them. We speak of them as dead, but, is anyone really dead who has lived a good life?

Theodore Roosevelt, while mourning the untimely death of a young son, concluded, Both life and death are a part of the same great adventure. When we become Christians, we become resurrection people. A part of the body of the resurrected Christ. We are told that we become the righteousness of God through Christ. The resurrection of Christ is the most important event the world has ever known. It is not just the hope, the assurance of our own physical resurrection. But, for the Christians, the important thing is not that there will be this resurrection, but that we as Christians, raised with Christ, can, and should, lead a resurrected life right here, right now! The very thought should bring us to our knees, then lift us up to joyful praise.

RECESS.

The class resumed singing with John Merritt leading song on page 186. Leaders: I. V. Cockrell, 192, 269. A memorial lesson was held at this time. I ask that each one here this morning have a prayer in your heart for me and this memorial service. I feel privileged to be here today with loving and caring christian people, and to offer prayers for comfort to families and friends of those who have gone on before us. The following have gone on a journey since we sang here a year ago. God grant that we may meet together in the world above where troubles will cease and harmony will abound. I want you to remember some thing about each one whose name I will call. The heartache and loneliness are here with us, but there is a peace in knowing there is no more pain and suffering, also imagine we hear the voice of the ones who proceeded us. Do not stand by my grave and weep, I am not there, I do not sleep , I am a thousand winds that blow, I am a diamond glint on snow, I am the sunlight on ripened grain, I am the gentle autumn rain, when you awake in the morning, hush I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circling flight, I am the soft starshine at night. Do not stand by my grave and cry I am not there. I did not die.

By saying these words my memory of each one gone on is not at the grave yard, but in the notes that have been sung, the birds, breezes, prayers and just every day living brings them to mind each day of the year. I would like to say one thing about Sacred Harp, precious memories flood my soul and cause me to be proud of a heritage that continues to bless my life. Face may dim as years come and go, but stopping again in the tracks that have been made in the past is good medicine for the soul. Now for Ephesians 5 :19 "Speak to one another with Psalms , Hymns and spiritual songs- sing and made music in your heart to the Lord always giving thanks to God the Father for every thing in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ". I feel that each one who has preceded us will be singing with us in much brighter tones than we can deliver on this earth. Edith Tate will led song on page 46 for the following decease: Preston Crider, Henry Johnson, Billy Galbreath, Belle Venie Woodard, Rosa McCoy, Bennie Keeton, Arthur Ward, Leonard Lacy, Noah Lacy, E. C. Bowen, John Barfield, Curtis McLendon, Priscilla Childers, Olmer Shipp, Arthur Calvert and Louie Battle. For the sick and shut-ins we ask that our creator and our eternal God put his loving arms around those who are unable to be with us because of sickness. God cares about our sorrows and sickness and has promised to give guidance and comfort if we will but trust him. May the warmth of knowing God flow over them and ease their pain and suffering. Let us ask ourselves what he would have us do for the sick and disable, maybe send cards, have a prayer on our lips or make a short phone call to some one. All would like a kind word to express our care and build their hope and don't forget to say I love you. Listen to the word as we sing Morning Prayer led by Velton Chafin for the following Mavis and Leon Price, Flora Otwell, Lucile Tolbert, Mamie Creel, Claudine Lancaster, Viva Barnes, Marie Guthrie, Elsie Moon, Bertha Henson and Clarice Hollis. Velton Chafin led 411 and the memorial was closed with prayer. Leaders: John Merritt, 235; Freeman Woolten, 385, 385b; Robert Bonell, 569b, 457.

RECESS.

The class was called together by Harrison Creel leading song on page 167. Leaders: Jenny Wootten, 17; Sara Harcrow and Jenny Wootten, 551; Christy Allen, 138; Evelyn Harris, 159. We come to the time in this convention for the Memorial lesson. We will remember those who have preceded us and gone on to the beautiful throne described by John in Revelation 4:3 and there was a rainbow round about the throne. We can't even imagin how beautiful heaven must be, but thank about the rainbow. It is so beautiful, but we here on earth have seen only half a rainbow. The ones whose names will be read are now enjoying the full rainbow around the throne. We can be thankful for the heritage they have left us that continues to bless our lives. A few years ago I really didn't know they sang Sacred Harp except when we had homecoming at the church I grew up in. I thought they came because they liked us. But I've found more fulminant in my life since I've learned these praises are sung far and near, and I want to thank each one of you for your personal interest in my learning to sing Sacred Harp. May I just single out one of our deceased, Preston Crider. He was so good to lead me into and out of the songs which I tried to learn, bless his soul, he was called to see the great white throne with a beautiful rainbow around it. His death seem untimely to me, as I am sure he went so suddenly. Life is so short we are here then gone like the beautiful snow flakes they seldom fall here in the south, and like our lives, just disappear so soon. they are like precious stones that we can hold a while, and then they are gone. As I read the names, fix in your mind all the good things you can remember about each one, and pray that as we are here we can show kindness and love that someone cares remember about us as life goes on. The decease are Leonard Lacy, Noah Lacy, Preston Crider; Arthur Ward, Curtis McLendon, Henry Johnson, Priscilla Childers, Zera Tollison, Rosa McCoy, Janie Creel, Bennie Keeton, Billy Gilbreath, Lovern Riley, Almar Shipp, from Alabama. E. C. Bowen, and Gary DeLong, Lizzy Mae Wilson, Fred Howle, Georgia; John Barfield, Fla; Parks, McNeil, Miss, Agnes Whitt, Georgia Armstrong, Illinois, James M. Windom, SR., Mi; Alene Harrington, Massachusetts. Leaders for the memorial and songs: Henry Guthrey, 420; Marcia Johnson, 494, 448; Aubrey Barfield, 163. Mae Seymour led 348b for the following shut-ins Mamie Creel, Jerry and Mozell Sheppard; Ralph Heath, Aver Crider; Rosa Huges, R.C and Reba Stanford; Peggy Dillard and Bertha Henson. Lets keep these people in our prayers for God to give them comfort and show them the rainbow in the rain. The memorial was closed with prayer by Aubrey Barfield. Regular singing resumed: Terry Wootton, 83; Karen Ivey, 145; Gertrude Wood, 300; Justin Keeton, 124; Reba Windom, 216; Richard Ivey, 128; John Beale, 278.
